

REVASIA research program
Innovative Approaches for the Evaluation of Animal Health Surveillance Systems:
Moving from Research to Policy Decision, 2nd WORKSHOP
16th June 2015
8h30-12h30, NIVR, Hanoi, Vietnam

Workshop agenda

Time	Topic
8h30-9h00	Welcoming and registration
8h30-8h40	Workshop Introduction Assc. Prof. Nguyen Viet Khong, Deputy director of Vietnam National Institute of Veterinary Research
8h40-9h00	Animal Health Surveillance System in Vietnam Ms. Nguyen Thi Diep, Department of Animal Health of Vietnam
9h00-9h20	The evolution of surveillance in Vietnam and REVASIA Research Program innovations/contributions Dr. Marisa Peyre- CIRAD
9h20-9h40	How to evaluate the impact of research in improving animal health surveillance programs in Vietnam? Ms. Stéphanie Cong, CIRAD-ISTOM
10h30-10h50	Coffee break
10h30-12h00	Working Group activity/discussions: building up an impact pathway "How to improve animal health surveillance in Vietnam?. Each group will work on one scenario: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Institutional changes</li> <li>- Advise to politics by research</li> <li>- Changes at local level, links between public/private stakeholders</li> </ul>
12h00-12h15	Brief presentation of the working group results
12h15-12h30	Conclusion and recommendations Assoc. Prof. Nguyen Viet Khong, Deputy director of Vietnam National Institute of Veterinary Research, Dr. Philippe Girard, CIRAD Regional Director for Continental South Est Asia and Dr. Marisa Peyre- CIRAD
12h30-14h00	Lunch at NIVR